THIS WEEK:

"Expansion is widening of what already exists. Expansion is growth that makes room. Expansion is bringing in more light, more love, more understanding, more life. It's expanding what is there already and what we have and just, it's like having a balloon and blowing it up bigger. It's all it is. It's not going we gotta do more. We gotta act more. We gotta be more. It's just expanding. What is already there. It's just getting bigger. Bigger. Expansion is not about striving. It is about capacity. It stretches the heart to hold more compassion. It opens the mind to have a new way of seeing. And I want to stress, it is not doing something new. It is entering. The something that already is. We are already God's beloved. We already belong."

Rev. Dr. Tracy L. Saletta

Conference Room

This year in honor of Martin Luther King Jr. Day, we invite you to join us right after church in the Conference room on Sunday January 18th. There will be readings from written works of the Civil Rights Leaders, followed by small group conversations. This is a great opportunity to learn as a community and pay tribute to the legacy of those who fought for equal rights.

Light fare will be provided
