A Church-Led Denomination <http://mccchurch.org/>

Metropolitan Community Churches began as a fellowship of churches, each church linked to another through affiliation as an open and inclusive body. Collectively, MCC churches offer a picture of Christianity and religion which celebrates God's diverse creativity. At our foundation, MCC brings to bear the co-existence and complementary relationship of sexuality and spirituality; initially bringing the message of God's love to homosexual persons. As MCC's message of love and inclusion in God's creation brought our churches into a variety of countries and cultures, our particular devotion to human rights and justice extended our gospel message to issues of human sexuality, gender identity, race, poverty, and more.

Political Activism

<https://www.indivisibleguide.com/web/>

We want to do two big things better:

1. Demystify congressional advocacy. We get hundreds of questions every day about what Congress is doing, how to organize locally (see the toolkit!), and how to advocate in different situations. We're going to start sending out timely updates and resources on what's going on in Congress and how you can best organize, make your voice heard, and influence your members of Congress.
2. Support the community of local groups putting the Indivisible Guide into action. We want to provide shared tools to help groups organize events, communicate with each other, and share best practices and resources. This also means spotlighting local successes and supporting a sense of a shared purpose. You can see that shared purpose already forming—just look at this beautiful movement on Rachel Maddow.

Movies with Coming Out Issues Involving Parents and Children

BROS

Bobby is a neurotic podcast host who's happy to go on Tinder dates and content not to have a serious relationship. That all changes when he meets Aaron, an equally detached lawyer who likes to play the field. Repeatedly drawn to each other, both men begin to show their vulnerable sides as their undeniable attraction turns into something resembling a commitment.

Just Charlie

A teen soccer star who is being courted by a top club is torn between wanting to live up to his Father's expectations and shedding his ill-fitting skin.

100% Rotten Tomatoes. Streaming on Hulu, Amazon Prime, You Tube and Apple TV.

Love, Simon

Everyone deserves a great love story, but for 17 year old Simon Spier, it's a little more complicated.

He hasn't told his family or friends that he's gay, and he doesn't know the identity of the anonymous classmate that he's fallen for online. Resolving both issues proves hilarious, terrifying and life-changing.

The Out List: A documentary about being among the LGBT community in modern society, told through interviews with LGBT celebrities and community leaders.

Director:

Timothy Greenfield-Sanders

Stars:

Dustin Lance Black, R. Clarke Cooper, Wade Davis |

Bridegroom

The tragic results of homophobia is explored in this award-winning documentary from writer/producer/director Linda Bloodworth Thomason.

Philomena

A world-weary political journalist picks up the story of a woman's search for her son, who was taken away from her decades ago after she became pregnant and was forced to live in a convent.

Flawless

Rusty (Philip Seymour Hoffman) is one of Walter's drag queen neighbors and the two are at-odds constantly due to their differing lifestyles. Rusty has a desire to undergo a transsexual operation, but lacks the money to do so.

Dallas Buyer's Club (December 2013)

A son of Texas, Ron Woodroof is an electrician and rodeo cowboy. In 1985, he is well into an unexamined existence with a devil-may-care lifestyle. Suddenly, Ron is blindsided by being diagnosed as H.I.V.-positive and given 30 days to live. Yet he will not, and does not, accept a death sentence. His crash course of research reveals a lack of approved treatments and medications in the U.S., so Ron crosses the border into Mexico. There, he learns about alternative treatments and begins smuggling them into the U.S., challenging the medical and scientific community including his concerned physician, Dr. Eve Saks. An outsider to the gay community, Ron finds an unlikely ally in fellow AIDS patient Rayon, a transsexual who shares Ron's lust for life. Rayon also shares Ron's entrepreneurial spirit: seeking to avoid government sanctions against selling non-approved medicines and supplements, they establish a "buyers club," where H.I.V.-positive people pay monthly dues for access to the newly acquired supplies. Deep in the heart of Texas, Ron's pioneering underground collective beats loud and strong. With a growing community of friends and clients, Ron fights for dignity, education, and acceptance. In the years following his diagnosis, the embattled Lone Star loner lives life to the fullest like never before. « less

The Wise Kids

A vivid, dynamic Southern coming-of-age drama, takes place in the transitional space between high school and college, when life seems to be all questions and no answers, and the future is scarily wide open. Set in and around a Charleston, SC Baptist church, weaving through this ensemble piece are three main characters - Brea, an introspective pastor's daughter experiencing debilitating doubt, the hyperactive Laura, Brea's best friend and a devout believer, and Tim, the open-hearted son of a single father, confronting his homosexuality for the first time. Tensions and buried feelings abound, as colleges are chosen and adults behave badly, as Brea, Laura and Tim attempt to hang onto what they have, all the while yearning to break free. Written by Stephen Cone

"Wish Me Away"

The story of country western singer and LGBTQ activist, Chely Wright. <http://www.wishmeawaydoc.com>

DOING TIME ON MAPLE DRIVE

The perfect college student son brings his fiancée home to meet the parents. Girlfriend discovers he is gay and flees. Wedding must be called off and mom is not happy.

C.R.A.Z.Y.

French Canadian (subtitles). A subtle portrayal of the coming out of a teenage boy who tries to live up to his mach father's expectations while navigating his way among four brothers.

BEAUTIFUL THING

Set in working class England, two teenage neighbors discover their attraction to each other. Together they begin to explore the wider gay world. Mom is not happy at first but comes around.

GET REAL

Two middle/upper middle class English high school boys become boyfriends. One works on the school newspaper and the other is the school jock. Jock wants to stay safely in the closet and his boyfriend does not.

TORCH SONG TRILOGY

Although made in 1988 as an adaptation of Harvey Fierstein's award winning play, this film is still relevant. It exposes and explores the damage done by homophobia and futile attempts to go straight.

JUST A QUESTION OF LOVE

French. One half of a young gay couple has trouble coming out to his parents and is outed by the mother of the boyfriend.

MOVIES DEALING WITH VARIOUS ASPECTS OF THE GAY EXPERIENCE

THE COMPLICATED GEOGRAPHY OF ALICE

It is an intimate portrayal of a family in crisis and a mother who believes that her daughter is going to blaze a brave new path if she can just keep her sober long enough to grow up. After previewing the book, YA author and LGBT advocate Brendan Halpin wrote: Jules Vilmur takes the wonder, joy, sadness and terror of careening through a life that suddenly feels out of control and makes great art out of it. This book is a tremendous gift to Alice and to us.

PRIDE

Based on a true story, the film depicts a group of lesbian and gay activists who raised money to help families affected by the British miners' strike in 1984, at the outset of what would become the Lesbians and Gays Support the Miners campaign.^[2] The National Union of Mineworkers was reluctant to accept the group's support due to the union's public relations' worries about being openly associated with a gay group, so the activists instead decided to take their donations directly to Onllwyn, a small mining village in Wales, resulting in an alliance between the two communities. The alliance was unlike any seen before but was successful.^[2]

BOOKS, READING MATERIALS

In 2010, Dan Savage and his partner, Terry Miller, uttered three words that would give rise to a global movement focused on empowerment of LGBTQ+ youth — it gets better

Growing up isn't easy. Many young people face daily tormenting and bullying, and this is especially true for LGBTQ kids and teens. In response to a number of tragic suicides by LGBTQ students, syndicated columnist and author Dan Savage uploaded a video to YouTube with his partner, Terry Miller. Speaking openly about the bullying they suffered, and how they both went on to lead rewarding adult lives, their video launched the It Gets Better Project YouTube channel and initiated a worldwide phenomenon.

It Gets Better is a collection of original essays and expanded testimonials written to teens from celebrities, political leaders, and everyday people, because while many LGBTQ teens can't see a positive future for themselves, we can.

The Ultimate Guide for Gay Dads: Everything You Need to Know About LGBTQ Parenting But Are (Mostly) Afraid to Ask Paperback – October 24, 2017

by Eric Rosswood (Author), Berlanti. Greg (Foreword)

#1 Amazon New Release!

If you are thinking of becoming a gay dad — or if you are already a gay dad — this book is for you!

Are you ready to have kids? More and more gay men are turning to adoption and surrogacy to start their own families. An estimated two million American LGBTQ people would like to adopt and an estimated 65,000 adopted children are living with a gay parent. In 2016, The Chicago Tribune reported that 10 to 20 percent of donor eggs went to gay men expanding their families via surrogacy, and in many places the numbers were up 50 percent from the previous five years.

Gay parenting: Having a kid is like coming out all over again, on a daily basis, especial if you have an infant. Was coming out stressful for you? It's about to get more intense

READING FOR YOUNGER CHILDREN WHO ARE TRANSGENDER, GENDER EXPANSIVE OR HAAVE A LOT OF QUESTIONS

Parents looking for age-appropriate reading material for younger children who are transgender, gender expansive, or simply have a lot of questions, might think that their options are limited. Happily, that's not the case. The books below each offer a different way to affirm, to learn, and to start important conversations. You can donate to PFLAG National by signing into Amazon Smile—smile.amazon.com—prior to purchasing any of the titles below.

Be Who You Are by Jennifer Carr: This charming children's story, written by a mom, tells of her own experience of raising and supporting her transgender child, and how she helped the school to support her as well.

Gender Now Coloring Book by Maya Gonzalez: A coloring book meant to provide reflection and support unity by showing multiple genders standing together. Inside you'll find stories, pictures, games and more to encourage and remind you that you are free to be!

I Am Jazz by Jessica Herthel and Jazz Jennings: The story of a transgender child based on the real-life experience of Jazz Jennings, who has become a spokesperson for transgender kids everywhere.

If You Believe in Mermaids...Don't Tell by A. A. Phillips: Todd Winslow has just finished seventh grade. He has always struggled with his own identity and what it means to be a boy, being perpetually measured against what his father views as the ‘perfect son.’ Philips presents a difficult gender issue to readers in a delicate manner.

Jacob’s New Dress by Sarah Hoffman: This heartwarming story speaks to the unique challenges faced by boys who don’t identify with traditional gender roles.

Meet Polkadot by Talcott Broadhead: Polkadot as well as Polkadot’s big sister Gladiola and best friend Norma Alicia, introduce readers to the challenges and beauty that are experienced by Polkadot as a nonbinary, transgender kid.

Morris Micklewhite and the Tangerine Dress by Christine Baldacchino: Morris is a little boy who loves using his imagination. But most of all, Morris loves wearing the tangerine dress in his classroom’s dress-up center. The children in Morris’s class don’t understand. One day when Morris feels all alone and sick from their taunts, his mother lets him stay home from school. Morris dreams of a fantastic space adventure with his cat, Moo.

My Princess Boy by Cheryl Kilodavis: Dyson loves pink, sparkly things. Sometimes he wears dresses. Sometimes he wears jeans. He likes to wear his princess tiara, even when climbing trees. He’s a Princess Boy.

Pinky and Rex and the Bully by James Howe: Pinky’s favorite color is pink, and his best friend, Rex, is a girl. Kevin, the third-grade bully, says that makes Pinky a sissy. Deep down, Pinky thinks Kevin is wrong, but he’s still worried. Does Pinky have to give up his favorite things, and worse, does he have to give up his best friend?

Pugdog by Andrea U’Ren: Mike and his pup are great friends. But Mike doesn’t know very much about dogs. Not only is Pugdog not a pug—Pugdog is not even a he, as Mike had thought all along, but a she! Mike feels obliged to give Pugdog a crash course on how to look and act the way a girl dog should. The only problem is Mike doesn’t know much about this subject either.

Sissy Duckling written by Harvey Fierstein and Illustrated by Henry Cole: Elmer is not like the other boy ducklings. While they like to build forts, he loves to bake cakes. While they like to play baseball, he wants to put on the halftime show. But when his father is wounded by a hunter’s shot, Elmer proves that the biggest sissy can also be the greatest hero.

The Story of Ferdinand by Munro Leaf, Illustrated by Robert Lawson: Ferdinand is the world’s most peaceful—and beloved—little bull. While all of the other bulls snort, leap, and butt their heads, Ferdinand is content to just sit and smell the flowers under his favorite cork tree. Leaf’s simple storytelling paired with Lawson’s pen-and-ink drawings make The Story of Ferdinand a true classic.

What Makes a Baby by Cory Silverberg, illustrated by Fiona Smyth: A wonderful children’s book that takes gender out of making a baby.
